

Autocratic Style - Telling

When using the Telling style the teacher:

- decides on what is to be done
- defines what to do and how to do it

Autocratic Style - Selling

When using the Selling style the teacher:

- decides on what is to be done
- explains what is required and the objectives
- ask the student questions to confirm understanding
- defines what to do and how to do it

Democratic Style - Sharing

When using the Sharing style the teacher:

- outlines the lesson requirements to the students
- invites ideas/suggestions from the students
- makes the decision based on the students' suggestions
- defines what to do and how to do it